Virtue Therapy: Healing for Good

Dr. Ross Porter

This six week series by Dr. Ross Porter continues into October. Each week addresses a different topic, so no need for concern if you missed a prior class.

Oct. 3: What makes someone a relationship-expert? How can a person really succeed in friendship, grow in self-respect, and be God's agent for change. Come learn about the virtue of Availability, and how when practiced, it can help you truly enjoy time with others, and also help them get to Heaven!.

Oct. 10: Work, work, work....when's the weekend? Come and hear how the virtue of Industriousness can help you find greater enjoyment in what you do, work smarter, and all the time grow in psychological and spiritual health!.

Oct. 17: Ever feel like there are never enough hours in a day? That your schedule controls you? That your life is not your own? Come and learn how the virtue of Orderliness can give you more of that precious gift of time, and free you to live a more quality life..

The Book Nehemiah – Spiritual Leadership Under Fire: Part 1

Rev. Dr. Steven B. Miller

This six week series by our new Associate Pastor begins October 24, 2010.

The Book of Nehemiah is possibly the best study of spiritual leadership in the Old Testament. In this one Leader, Nehemiah son of Hacaliah, we observe a strong and prayerful servant that was called upon by God to not only rebuild a wall but also rebuild the chosen people of God. In this wonderful narrative we will explore how Nehemiah worked under harsh conditions and even death threats to lead God's chosen people back from exile to a place of prosperity. Come and join us as we explore the first six chapters of the Book of Nehemiah.
